

HEIDENFEST 2026

Korpiklaani, Finntroll, Heidevolk, Trollfest, The Dread Crew of Oddwood

Heidenfest returns in 2026 with Korpiklaani, Finntroll, Heidevolk, Trollfest and The Dread Crew of Oddwood!

This will be the first time in their long careers that Korpiklaani & Finntroll tour together, which only took roughly 13 years to finally make happen!

Joining them to celebrate this unique event are some of their best friends and drinking partners in Heidevolk and Trollfest. To warm up the evening with all the dancing, drinking, moshing and all round good time are The Dread Crew of Oddwood.

Good music, good friends and never enough celebrations.
Heidenfest 2026 will be a night to remember!

Due to prior agreements, Finntroll will miss the first 3 shows.

Moonsorrow will replace them, making this a small 10 year reunion of the Finnish Folk Metal Mafia.

Vanaheim to also join for the 013 show as special guest.

KORPIKLAANI Jonne Järvelä comments:

"I'm more than excited to be touring Europe with such a great group of bands. We've known each other for decades and that's why I might feel a little old. Fortunately, a carefree, joyous, unrestrained, wild, fun, exhilarating, intoxicating, unconventional, extravagant and hilarious tour life is so healthy and refreshing that it keeps us young and fresh. Come along and you'll be surprised by the amazing and crazy nights with us. Fun is guaranteed!"

FINNTROLL comments:

"This is no ordinary tour — it is a march of madness and glory across Europe! Our strings are tuned to mischief, and at last we will tour side by side with our friends in Korpiklaani and TrollfesT, strengthened by Heidevolk and Oddwood. This tour brings forth a storm of dark tunes, overflowing ale, and untamed revelry. Expect nights where reality bends, ancient spirits stir, and the line between myth and madness disappear. Join the horde, this will be legendary!"

HEIDEVOLK comments:

"Hello fellow heathens! After the crazy successful Paganfest tour earlier this year, we are once again invited to join a legendary tour making its long awaited return: HEIDENFEST! Together with our longtime friends and colleagues from Korpiklaani, Finntroll, Trollfest, and The Dread Crew of Oddwood, we will embark on a European road trip to bring you the songs we couldn't play at Paganfest. Get ready for a legendary night of exquisite folk metal madness, and raise your horns with the Pagan Metal Brotherhood! ☐🔥👊"

TROLLFEST comments:

"The ultimate tour package straight out of our moistest, wildest dreams has arrived! Korpiklaani and Finntroll — the very reasons TrollfesT was spawned into existence — are leading the charge. Add our beloved drinking brothers Heidevolk and the utterly unhinged Dread Crew of Oddwood, and you've got yourself a tour destined for glory! This is not just a tour... this is history, covered in beer foam, accordions, and questionable decisions!"

THE DREAD CREW OF ODDWOOD comments:

"Sharpen your crab claws and prepare for an evening of ultimate folk metal fun, 'cause we're bringing Heavy Mahogany back to Europe! We can't wait to feast alongside the legendary bands on this tour and share a night of nautical debauchery with you all!"
